

AROSE!
Luke 24:28 – 48

Intro

The resurrection of Christ from the tomb is far more than an isolated historical event that has no significance or meaning for today. the resurrection of Christ is a present reality in which we must live and act today.

LUKE 24:32

It is only when we see the significance of the resurrection of Christ for the past, the present, and the future can we truly understand and appreciate the message of Easter.

The resurrection of Christ A_____ the questions about his death on the cross.

For the disciples, the resurrection helped the early disciples R_____ Christ's deity.

R_____ - to grasp or understand clearly, to make real, give reality to

The resurrection of Christ gave the disciples an O_____ to have a companion for life.

The resurrection of Christ S_____ the disciples the power that is available to lighten the burdens of life.

The resurrection of Christ proves E_____ is real.

Conclusion

Christ Jesus is risen from the dead.