

Still...in Control!
HUMBLED
Daniel 4

Intro

George Armstrong Custer, a U.S. cavalry officer who served with distinction in the American Civil War, is better known for leading more than 200 of his men to their deaths in the notorious Battle of the Little Bighorn in June 1876. The battle, also known as “Custer’s Last Stand,” was part of the Black Hills War against a confederation of Plains Indians, including the Cheyenne and Dakota Sioux. During the morning of June 25, Custer’s scouts reported spotting smoke from cooking fires and other signs of Indians in the valley of the Little Bighorn. Disregarding Terry’s orders, Custer decided to attack before infantry and other support arrived. Scouts warned that his regiment of 647 would be facing superior numbers (perhaps 2,500 warriors).

Custer displayed the most basic of all sins – pride.

Nebuchadnezzar accepted God’s rule in his life and he warned his hearers about the foolishness of thinking they could direct their own lives. He didn’t invite them to accept God and ask God to direct their lives.
